CAP '62

Published by
Capuchino High School

Theme

Focus On Cap

In this yearbook we have attempted to take our camera past the mere superficialities of school life. We have attempted to train our camera on the inner core of a great school. With other schools, pictures of faces and buildings may be sufficient; with Cap we must search deeper—go past the face and into its heart. Our focus, then, is not on Cap as a cold concrete form but as a living institution of learning whose life blood is the spirit of its students and faculty.

Dedication

PAUL BALDWIN:

- an administrator, whose sound, decisive judgement is a major factor in maintaining student cooperation.
- a coach and a teacher who has inspired many students in his capacity as an outstanding athlete and teacher.
- a man whose many-sided abilities bring into focus the qualities recognized and respected by the student body.

We, the staff of Cap '62 wish to dedicate this yearbook to Paul Baldwin, Dean of Boys.

Campus '62

Capuchino was once the site of the "old Rancho del Capuchino," from which came the name of the school. Since Cap opened in 1950, many changes have taken place. The school now holds 1850 students. Capuchino High School is the focal point of education for many students of Millbrae and San Bruno.

A structure very familiar to all Cap students is the Administration Building. It is the first wing entered by students and faculty members coming in from the parking lot. The policies of school procedure originate in this building, the focal point of the academic side of school.

School Life

On opening day for the freshmen, Principal Paul Claudon and Student Body officers welcomed the incoming class and showed them around the campus.

A familiar sight to all students is Boys' Vice-President Rick Bethold raising the flag every morning before school begins.

Under the direction of Adolph Harrison and Student Director Dave Nebergall, morning announcements over KCAP were lively and enjoyable.

Crowded hallways were a big problem in keeping the campus clean and getting to class on time. The tremendous size of the student body, more than 1800 strong, created such a problem.

At left, members of our esteemed faculty, John Nordquist, Billie Hallberg, and Melvin Tuohey, assist at a swimming meet, as other faculty members assisted at track meets and other activities around school.

Below, students hurry back to class when the first bell after lunch rings. The court between the Little Theater and Science Wing was a favorite place to eat lunch.

The noon crowd at the Co-op was a real traffic jam, while other students and faculty members try to pass through. Of course, by the time the noon hour had come, everyone—faculty and students alike were ready for a forty-minute break.

The casual pace set by the girls in the picture above suggests the final lull before the first bell rings to call them back to class after lunch.

At left, students are loading on buses for the trip home when the final bell for the school day rings.

The focus of life at Capuchino is in the classroom. To enrich the students' minds is the aim of the faculty.

The wide scope of knowledge and the students in becoming mature and capable citizens.

Girls'

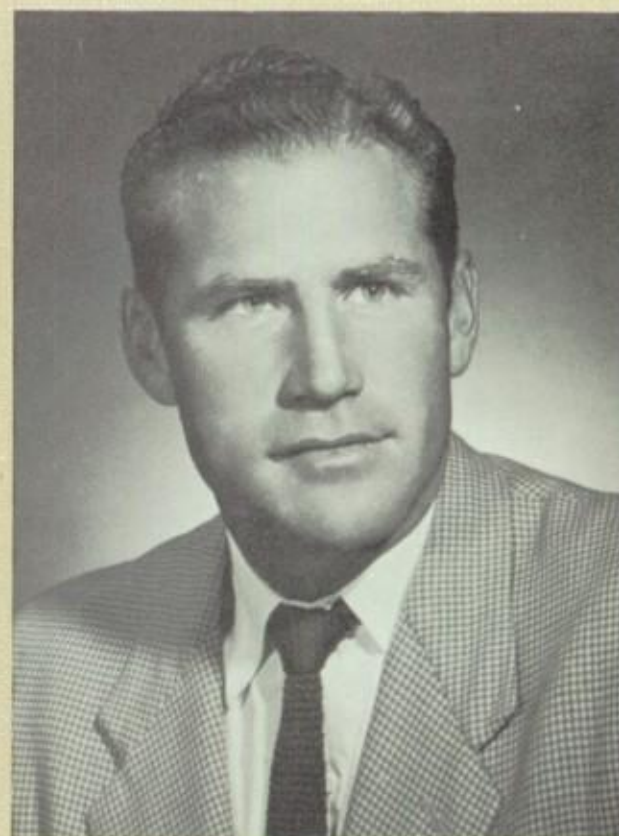

Responding excellently to the new duties in all situations, and advisor of the Capuchino Girls Association was Florence Gorman, Dean of Girls during the fall semester. In the spring semester, Cap students welcomed back Dean of Girls Janice Robison. As in the past, Dean Robison fulfilled her endless duties and obligations as Dean and as Advisor to the Capuchino Girls Association, superbly, and contributed her part in maintaining the high standards held by Capuchino.

Boys'

During the Fall Semester, Boys' Dean David Studebaker once again displayed outstanding disciplinary guidance. Dean Studebaker was honored by being appointed principal of Crestmoor High School. Former football coach and Director of Athletics Paul Baldwin, had the distinction of replacing Mr. Studebaker as dean at the spring semester. As coach, he was responsible for many honors acquired by Cap teams in the so-called 'Golden Era of Sports'. Since 1957 Mr. Baldwin has taught in the Mathematics Department. In his first semester as dean he has shown vigorous leadership.

Class Activities

Top: Science teacher James Rutherford through the use of experiments, demonstrates to his class how it is possible to burn steel. Right: John Aguiar, Spanish teacher, through the use of the language lab, helps Mike McQuade learn Spanish.

Top: San Bruno Councilman, Robert Price, speaks to Adolph Harrison's and Leo Ryan's government classes on the importance of the role of the citizen in local government. Right: Mr. Palmer's journalism classes visit the printing presses of the San Francisco Examiner, to see how a daily newspaper is published.

At Capuchino, academic learning activities are not confined to the four walls of the classroom. Though all activities are centered on learning, the manner of learning differs.

To take advantage of the wide scope of opportunities available to students in the Bay Area, instructors lead their students on various trips to educational places, and obtain special guest speakers to explain specific points. By means of debates and panel discussions, the instructor stimulates students into participating and thus contributing to their education. To inspire students to take an interest in their work, many faculty members demonstrate meaning through experiments. Through all these methods and more, Cap's aim of focusing on a well-rounded education of its students is carried out.

Librarians

Gazing into the miniature universe, head librarian Robert Sumpter and Norma Sterrett, librarian, demonstrate some of the many conveniences of our school library.

Keeping our library intact and trying to process the many library books are Elsie Giovannini, Juliet Dowd (visual aids), and Florence Quay.

Administration

School business is transacted capably by secretaries Kathleen Hollabaugh, Corrine Kahler, Louise Raymond, and Ruth Witmer.

Bringing unity to all the activities of the administrative office are secretaries Grace Sullivan, Virginia Mourton, and Alma Cuenca.

Custodians

The maintenance of Cap's superior appearance is in the hands of our capable custodians. To them we give our sincere appreciation: Irving St. Charles, Rocky Flores, Roy Jones, Gino Tribuzi, Edwardo Ruiz, Henry Federghi, Bill Costiduo, Gilbert Wilterwood, and Head Custodian Ernest Lara.

Keeping our grounds trim, orderly, and in bloom are Cap's two fine gardeners, John Helenius and Louis De Martini.

Cafeteria

Known for their superb meal planning are Cap's excellent cooks, under the direction of Pearl Goodchild. Standing: Helen Love, Grace Giannotti, Pearl Goodchild, Helen Hull, and Vi Chandler. Sitting: Jo Gervasi, Sylvia Stein, Nell Lizzio, and Vickie Laurens.

To focus on activities one would have to picture every rooting section, every dance, every club organization and activity as well as every event that transpires during the course of a school day.

Within the next section of Cap '62, we have focused on representative activities of Cap life in '62.

American Field Service

Representing Brazil is Miriam Worm, who spent the full school year attending Capuchino as an exchange student.

Beginning last spring, a group of juniors and seniors determined that they wanted to form an organization that would provide a basis for the A.F.S. exchange students. This group of young people formed the A.F.S. Club. Under advisor Billie Hallberg, the A.F.S. Club has been extremely active this school year. The club members have held concessions, sponsored the San Francisco Symphony Band Concert, acted as hosts to the Capuchino P-TA, and were the organizers of the all-school talent show.

The American Field Service, founded in 1914 and serving with the allied forces in World War I and II as a volunteer ambulance corps, has become a world wide, non-profit educational organization. The objective of this service is to promote understanding among the peoples of the participating nations by bringing high school students from abroad to study in American schools and also sending American students to attend foreign schools. Through the A.F.S. program, Cap has come in close contact with many nations of the world. This year alone, four nations have been represented in the American Field Service Program.

Angelita Miguel, who is from the Philippines, spent one week at Capuchino as Foreign Exchange Student, while participating in Exchange Week.

In her first year as advisor to the A.F.S. Club, Mrs. Billie Hallberg has led the club to much success in activities.

A.F.S. Club

Spending the school year in Australia through the efforts of the A.F.S. Program was Michelle De Kline.

Ken Paige, on the summer A.F.S. Program, spent three months in Greece.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE CLUB

Clubs . . .

The German Club under Mr. Shurk is perhaps the biggest and busiest club on campus. Throughout the year they have seen German movies, gone to German dinners, and have kept up correspondence with a high school in West Berlin. Leading the club are: Mark Sprague, president; Dave Hathorne, vice-president; Myra Walinski, secretary-treasurer; and Kathy Ellery, historian.

Photography

Pictured here are three representatives of Cap's photography club. Under the leadership of Mr. Jezycki, the club meets regularly to explore the mysteries of shutters, lenses, and flash-bulbs! One big project for the members was taking publicity stills for school plays.

Speech

The Speech Club meets every week with Miss Lucidi and Mr. Fischer in order to learn and practice different kinds of public speaking. Through field trips they are able to observe good speaking techniques in others, and thereby improve their own. Its officers are Vicki Dryden, president; Moonyeen Webb, vice-president; Bonnie Feeny, secretary-treasurer.

Library

The library club is composed of a group of students who volunteer their time to help the students in our library. They are the ones who are able to use library facilities before, after, or as well as during class.

Science Club

Under the advisorship of the entire Science Department, Cap's Science Club participated in evening career discussions, worked on individual projects and co-sponsored "Hope Week." Leading the club this year were: Sarah Jenkins, President; Cheryl Lawry, Vice President; Sue Turnbull, Secretary; John Laursen, Treasurer; and Mike Tripp, Field Service Reporter.

Future Nurses Club

Judy Panttaja and Cheryl Lawry, Presidents; and Joyce Turnbough, Historian, led the Future Nurses Club through an active year. With the assistance of the Science Club, they sponsored Cap's first "Hope Week." The studentbody viewed a film showing the wonderful work of the ship Hope; after seeing the film, Cap students donated $247 towards the cause — more than any other school on the Peninsula! The Club's sponsor is Mrs. Doris Byers.

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club under its officers: Carol Kindell, President; Mark Sprague, Vice President; Eileen Kindell, Secretary; and Kristine Kahn, Historian, have been extra-busy this year. The club's activities included its annual essay-writing contest, the posting of a bulletin board in the school library, and a field trip along with their advisor Mr. Charles Tyner to San Francisco State College where they sat in on a course in political philosophy.

Cadet Teachers

To qualify for the cadet teaching program a student must be in good standing, carry at least a B-average, and express the desire to become a teacher. This year nearly fifty Cap students spent a week and a half observing and teaching in the class-rooms of most San Bruno and Millbrae grade schools. Afterwards they met with their coordinator, Mr. Don Laclergue, for a careful evaluation of their experiences.

President Bev Burton and Vice-President Sharon Browning review the reports from a highly successful semester of GAA activities.

Secretary Diane Wild records the minutes of the recent GAA Cabinet meeting while treasurer Bonnie Sisk gives her silent approval.

The combined efforts of the officers and their advisor, Miss Sylvia Kaplan, produced a high quality GAA.

The GAA Awards Banquet proved to be an hilarious evening for everyone dressed as a favorite TV character.

G.A.A. Activities

"Sticks!", "Foot Fault!", "Off Side!", "Obstruction!" were cries uttered by G.A.A. hockey officials and advisor Miss Sylvia Kaplan.

G.A.A. synchronized swimming was enjoyed wholeheartedly by many of the girls. Miss Jeannine Wiles and Mrs. Susan Wilhelm were the advisors.

"Up and over" proved to be the call shouted most by faculty advisor, Miss Gloria Alvernaz. The repeated cry is well illustrated in the picture above of tennis activity.

Good defense is one of the assets of a good basketball team. Shown above are Bev Burton and Sharon Browning. Miss Kaplan was the advisor.

G.A.A. kickball was enjoyed by underclassmen girls, led by their advisor, Mrs. Susan Perry.

A little low or maybe it's just not over the plate. Whatever is the matter, Yael Stuckgold and Sandy Olsen evidently need more practice. Advisor to G.A.A. baseball was Mrs. Susan Perry.

"I've got it! No, I've got it"! Volleyball was enjoyed after school by freshman and sophomore girls under Miss Jeannine Wiles' watchful eye.

Badminton for junior and senior girls proved to be an active sport. Even under Miss Gloria Alvernaz's guarding eye, birds still found their way to the rafters and window sills.

In tumbling, balance and co-ordination are extremely important. Well illustrating this point is Maggie Sievers. Advisors to the sport were Miss Alvernaz and Mrs. Perry.

Modern Dance Concert

"Bass 'C'" Sarah Jenkins reaches utter concentration as the music reaches a high point.

"Primitif" was a departure into deepest Africa amid the pulsating drums.

One of the most hilarious moments in the show came at the finish with "Ladybug."

In Bass 'C' the students selected the music of Schubert to dance to.

Using a drum as their only music, students dance to an original poem "Death Is A Woman."

One of the more colorful numbers in the show was a Can-Can done to the music from "Gaité Parisienne."

Block "C"

Honorary organizations composed of those people who show skill in various sports are the Men's and Girls' Block "C" Associations. To become a member of one of these organizations, the participants must earn an established amount of points through participation in sports of their choice.

During his two years as Drum Major, Bob Chisholm has led the Marching Band in Washington, Long Beach, and local parades, as well as in the football games. His hard work has made the band one of the finest in the state.

Majorettes

Concert Band

The dance band has been the center of attention at numerous sock hops and the annual Queen's Ball. Its melodies set the atmosphere for the various activities.

Again as in past years, the Band Concert April 6 and 7 demonstrated the fine quality of music always displayed by our outstanding music department. Under the direction of Ralph Bredenberg, the band played "Victory at Sea", selections from "Camelot" and Latin American selections.

Our talented band director, Mr. "B", gives the downbeat.

The Pep band has uplifted the high spirit of the students at rallies and exciting basketball games, throughout the year.

C.S.F.

Recognition of scholastic talents was given to many outstanding students of Capuchino in first semester work when they became members of C.S.F. Qualifications for membership to the California Scholarship Federation consist of three "A's" and one "B" for a total of ten points. Various activities also contribute points to make the desired total. During the past semester the C.S.F. Honor Society made Golden Gate Park the site of their annual field trip.

First row: (L-R) Keller, DeHart, Bolts, Torlucci, Conrad, Olson, Sutton, Mitchell, Hykal, Tilson. Second row: Broad, Meek, Tyrrel, Berg, Olson, Nigel, Howard, Schulz, Hanchen, Hill. Third row: Ward, Ryan, Glasgow, Goodyear, Gonzales, Walter, Polach, Stinson, Ruona, Macartney. Fourth row: Nebergall, Oliver, Asplund, Walinski, Sisk, Kline, Herrero, Berthold, Jacobs, Curtin. Fifth row: Boot, Mussat, Sherlock, Muscat, Tripp, Baldassari, Davis, Sly, O'connicof, Tilson, Morena. Sixth row: Kahn, Paige, Thomas, Schreiner, Raymond, Larson, Furnanz, Ingham, Calhoon, Schlauder, Coulthard. Seventh row: Smith, Betti, Latimer, Kisilitchank, Vincent, Arnsberger, Baxter, Lowenberg, Hill, Ericksen, Thomas.

Lifetime Members of C.S.F.

Phi Beta Cap Members

Phi Beta Cap, being the largest honor society at Capuchino, has only existed for four years but with overwhelming success. Qualifications for membership are "B's" or better on the semester final grades. These students represent only first semester's showing of Phi Beta Cap students.

Award Winners

Golden "C"

PRODUCTIONS

"They're the most tidy, respectful group of men it's ever been my fortune to get, sir," says Linda Bledsoe at the Friday night, Feb. 2, performance of the "Hasty Heart."

During rehearsal, Director Ken Ton shouts, "Take five", and these members of the cast, Ken Paige, Vicki Bolts, Chuck Ferguson, and Bob Holdsworth, relax.

The Hasty Heart

A military hospital in the Burma jungle and the relationships of seven human beings with a bitter, dying Scotsman created the mood of dramatic tension for Cap's production of "The Hasty Heart" on February 2 and 3. The following actors and technical managers may be credited with the popularity of this presentation:

Orderly	John Neary
Margaret	Linda Bledsoe
	Vicki Bolts
Yank	Ken Paige
Digger	Bob Holdsworth
Kiwi	Tom Macris
Blossom	Chuck Ferguson
Tommy	Bob Rothstein
Colonel	Douglas Stachelek
Lachen	Jack Corkey
Student Directors	Jim Locke, Jim McMenamin
Stage Manager	Toni Barnes
Technical Directors	Mr. Stanley Grosse, Don Clark
Director	Mr. Kenneth Ton

Mr. Ton (left) coaches the play's cast before the action begins, a highlight of which is the fight between Jack Corkey and Ken Paige.

THE

Cap's first dramatic success this year was "The Curious Savage," a comedy set in a sanitarium to which an eccentric, wealthy old lady has been committed by her selfish children. Their schemes to obtain her $10,000 are exposed and the story climaxes happily, thanks to the talent of the following actors:

Florence	LaVina Scott
Hannibal	Jack Corkey
Fairy Mary	Joyce Thomas
Jeffrey	Dennis Long
Mrs. Paddy	Toni Barnes
	(alternating) .. Vicki Dryden
Miss Willie	Jaynese Smith
Titus	Bob Coleman
Lily Belle	Tracy Reed
Samuel	Tom Kasigner
Dr. Emmett	Virginia Waltheu
Mrs. Savage	Charyn Silverman

Involved here in a humorous conversation are Mrs. Savage, with Jenny Loyer substituting for Sharyn Silverman during rehearsal, and her nurse, Miss Willie, played by Jaynese Smith.

CURIOUS SAVAGE

Excitement rises on stage as Mrs. Savage's Teddy Bear, where the $10,000 is concealed, is examined for its much-sought-after contents.

MIDNIGHT SHADOWS

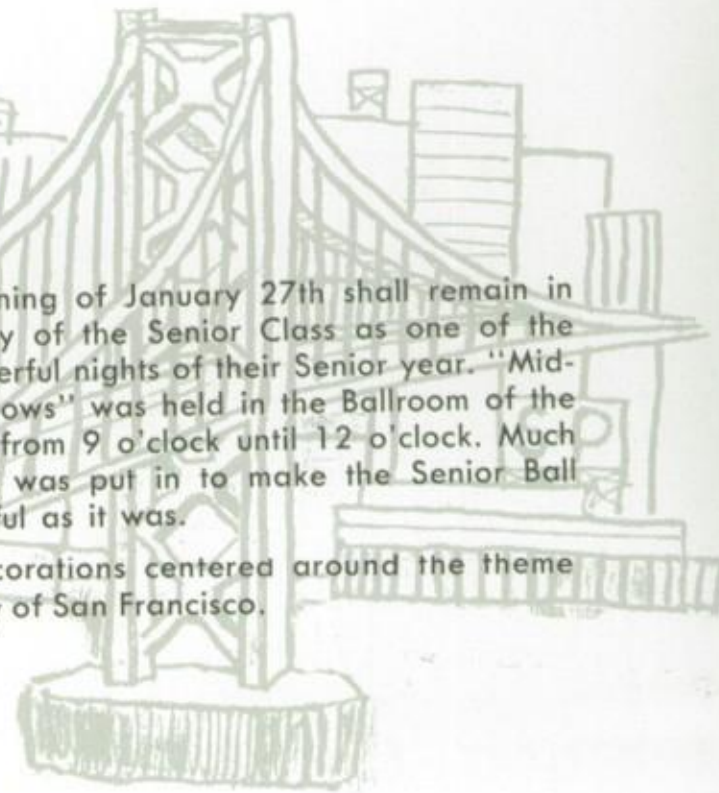

January 27

Hilton Inn

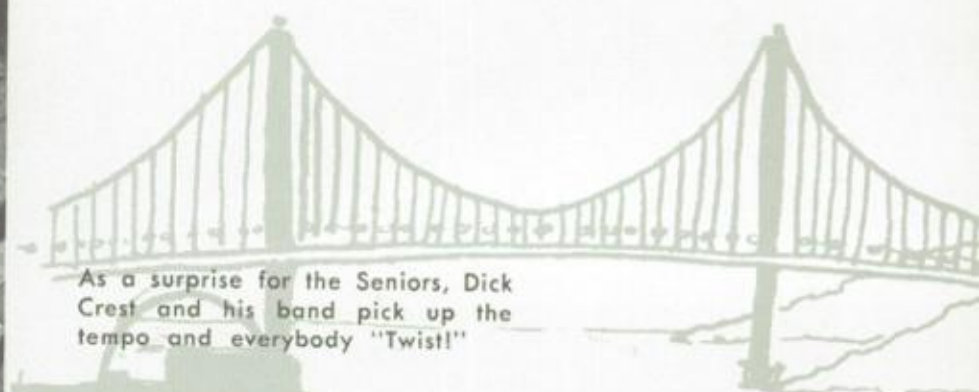

The evening of January 27th shall remain in the memory of the Senior Class as one of the most wonderful nights of their Senior year. "Midnight Shadows" was held in the Ballroom of the Hilton Inn from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock. Much hard work was put in to make the Senior Ball as successful as it was.

The decorations centered around the theme of the city of San Francisco.

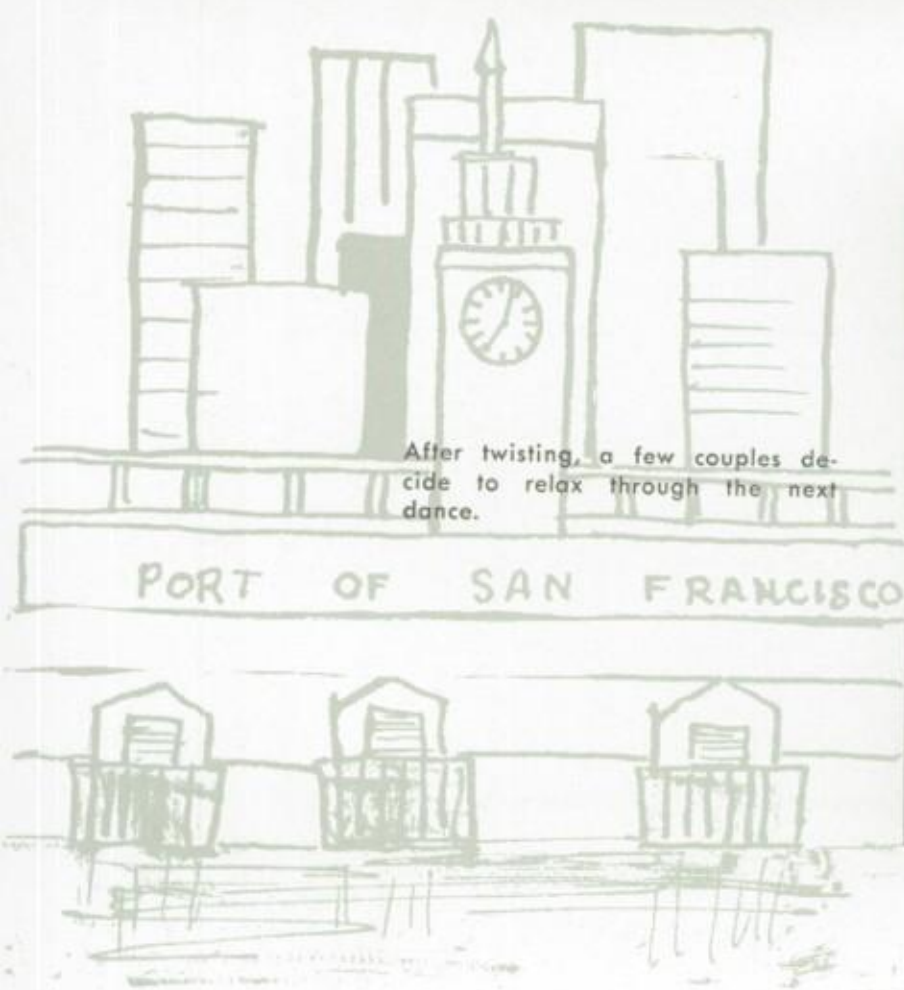

Seen arriving at the Hilton Inn are (L-R) Chuck Baker, his date Claudia Steenberg, Diane Garmeson, and her escort, Mike Ramsey. This foursome is reputed to have had a wonderful evening.

As a surprise for the Seniors, Dick Crest and his band pick up the tempo and everybody "Twist!"

After twisting, a few couples decide to relax through the next dance.

From busy classroom to noisy hall to classroom again move the students of Capuchino. More than 1800 strong, they make up the most spirited and most envied school on the Peninsula. In classes from confused freshmen to mighty seniors are the students whose success in everything from academics to athletics has caught the admiration of everyone. With all eyes focused on Capuchino, it is little wonder that our school places first in all that they attempt and produces some of the best leadership talent.

Senior Class

After three years of recognition as successful underclassmen, the class of '62 can look back on an eventful Senior year.

Under the leadership of class President, Chris Johansen, "Midnight Shadows," this year's Senior Ball, was held at the Hilton Inn on January 27, proving to be a great success. To raise money for the Senior Ball and Grad Night, the Senior Class sponsored a fun night, and manned concessions at sport events.

Senior Class Candidids

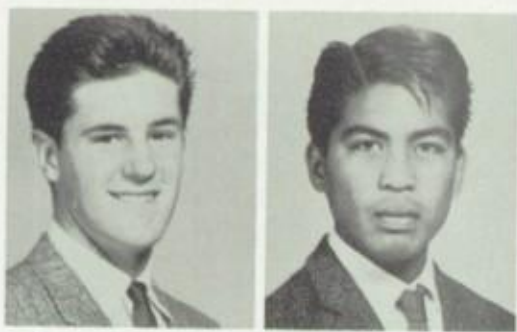

Juniors

Included among other undertakings were concessions, receiving their class rings, and an after-game dance.

With the help of their officers and advisors, the sophomores have increased their treasury by sponsoring a fun night just for sophomores and a Sock Hop, "Twelfth Twist," for the entire student body. They have also added much to the school's spirit by challenging the seniors in competition yelling, and showing their strength in numbers as Cap's largest class.

Freshmen

John Neary, president

Jan McCracken, secretary
Mike Smith, vice-president

Donna Bianchi, treasurer

Decoration of the school Christmas tree, a fun-night, and a sock-hop were some of the events included in the schedule of the freshman class. Under the leadership of John Neary, president; Mike Smith, vice-president; Jan McCracken, secretary; and Donna Bianchi, treasurer, the class of '65 is well on their way to keep Cap's reputation as the best school on the Peninsula.

Cap Candids

Position is everything in life!

You know what I like—Va-va-va-voom!

Hold it a minute, fellas.

But he's still alive. Ugh!

Look at those sexy legs—the boys I mean.

Do you girls have a problem?

Now if $20(xy + qrs - 45 - 684 + xyz + \frac{1}{2}tjn) = \frac{1}{4}xzy$ what does $2+2=$?

More Candids

We're being invaded by the Zooloomoo's.

Now who could be parked in such a place?

Please, at least hit the backboard . . .

What are you—some kinds of nuts?

Now if you run into a real blond

Go get 'em, Harrison!

The gun is fired; the whistle is blown; the crowd's attention is focused on the field of athletic endeavor. Sports play an important part in the life of the Capuchino student — whether through actual participation or attendance at sport events. In the fall, attention is directed to the football field, in the winter to the basketball court, and in the spring to one of the many available sports. We now focus our attention on the entire scope of Capuchino athletics.

COACHES

DAVE FIELD

Head of Cap's fortunes on the gridiron is Dave Field. In his four seasons as head coach at Cap, Coach Field has compiled a league record of 23 wins and 7 defeats. Mr. Field was a standout athlete at Stanford and came to Cap in '58. He has also had the honor of being named PL Coach of the Year in '59.

CARL LUEDER

Coaching comes natural to this all-conference lineman from College of Pacific. Carl came to Cap in '58 and has since groomed some of our school's finest athletes.

DON DAKE

The job of handling Cap's talented ends goes to this young perfectionist. An all-around athlete at Washington State University, Mr. Dake came to Cap in '57 and took over as end coach in '58.

Season's Action

Dennis Doris, junior quarterback, fires a jump pass behind the blocking of Cap's forward wall and fullback Blake Lewis. Action came in the second quarter of Cap's game against the Westmor Rams. Cap went on to win 18-7.

Blake Lewis fights for vital yards against Hillsdale Knights in final game of the season. Escorting Lewis are (L-R) Walt Wenger, Jim O'Keefe, Fred Wenger, and Jim Locke.

Lewis breaks loose for five yards behind blocks by Jim O'Keefe and Mike Jackson. Action came late in third quarter of 'Tang-Knight battle.

The final play: Tom Haxton carries the ball to the Hillsdale one-foot line as Cap drive falls 12 inches short of championship. Cap lost the decisive battle 12-7.

Peninsula

The 1962 championship Thirties mark an unusual event in Capuchino's history of basketball and B basketball in general. This year denotes the sixth consecutive championship for the Capuchino Thirties, and produces the Thirties as Peninsula League champions forever. Six seasons ago, Ken LaCrosse began his coaching career of the Capuchino B's. That year also marked the beginning of the Peninsula League. Ever since this first season, the Thirties have had a championship club, all produced by Ken LaCrosse. Now at the end of the '62 season, the Peninsula League leaves as it began, with the victory of the Capuchino Thirties. Next year, the Peninsula League will be split into two separate leagues. For this reason, the Capuchino Thirties teams can be called the dominators of the Peninsula League.

In these two pictures we see the team in jubilation for their accomplishments. The team efforts have proven worthwhile, and Ken LaCrosse's stressing of teamwork has again been successful. Above, the team lifts Coach LaCrosse after their victory over Hillsdale, the end of a victorious season. The team is carrying him to his annual bath in the pool. To the right, the coach receives his annual bath as a reward for his hard work in producing a smooth-working basketball club. The record of losing only one game exemplifies the desire of the team to be champions.

30's Standouts

Backed by the determination of the whole squad, these individuals were given the spirit and desire by their fellow members to play their best for their mates, who worked to produce a championship team. Those who played were honored to express the team's desire on the court.

At right, Pete Harames scores his shot against a fighting Mills club, as they look on in frustration.

Above: Action dominated the final game against Hillsdale. Rich James and Dave Kaufmann fight for the ball as Frank Ruona looks on. Right: Dave Kaufman demonstrates his deadly set-shot, as he hits two points, against the Knights.

Rich James goes high for his shot against the Hillsdale Knights in the final game, which climaxed the season.

Men Of The Backboards

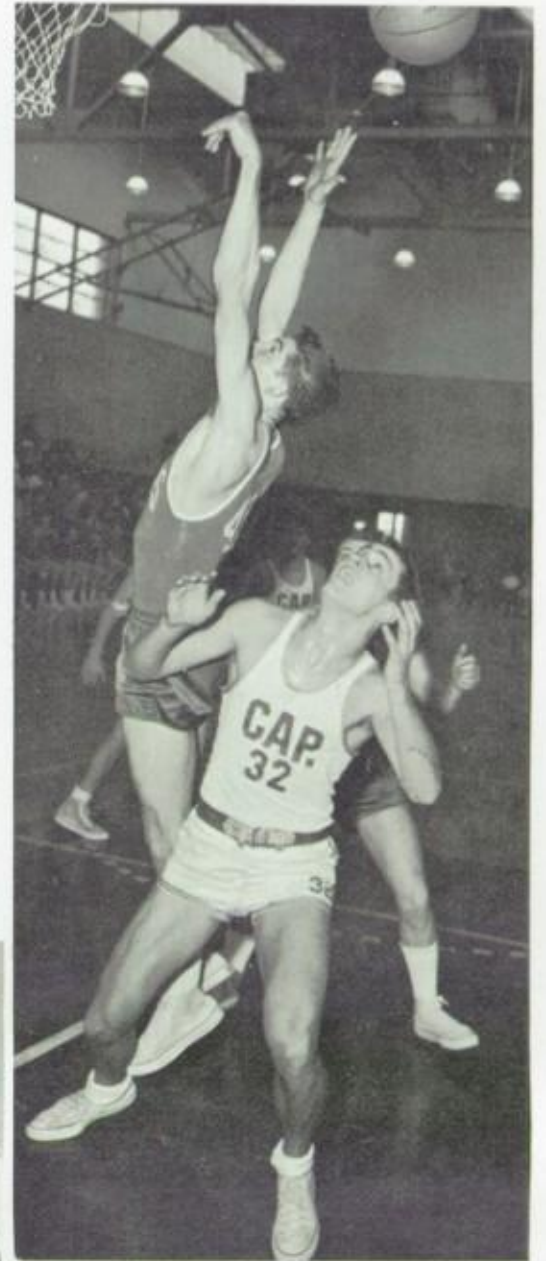

The Capuchino High School Varsity Basketball team led by Coach Jim Johnson, who has been successful in bringing the P.C. Championship to Cap four times in the last five years, lost the championship stride and settled for a second division finish. With no returning lettermen to pace a winning club, the Mustangs put forth their best but had to settle for a lower half spot in an extremely close race for the P.L. title, won by San Mateo. Their season record was seven wins and eleven losses but many of the losses were decided only in the closing seconds of the games. Cap fans experienced many closely contested games during the hard and tiring campaign.

COACH JOHNSON

With five titles in eight league seasons and one Stanford Tourney championship to his credit, the Mustangs are proud to pay tribute to Coach Jim Johnson for the excellent work he has displayed at Capuchino. Coming to Cap from East Nicolaus High School, he immediately showed his skill in developing interested basketball players into champions. His versatility reaches far into the world of sports for while at San Jose State he lettered not only in basketball but also as a championship boxer, soccer and track man. At San Jose State he received his A.B. and later did graduate work at Stanford. His personality, warmth and enthusiasm with his sportsmanship, willingness to help and his competitive spirit make him a truly outstanding coach.

Coach Don Laclergue

The Capuchino Varsity Baseballers completed a successful season, finishing in a tie for first place in the Peninsula League with cross-town rival Mills. Cap's two losses to Mills kept them from winning the title outright. Led by ace hurler Wally Bunker, the Mustangs won 16 of their 18 games. Coach Don Laclergue led seniors Tom Haxton, Doug Moyer, Lance Haag, Chris Johansen, Terry Parks, Bill Peterposten, Don Kayser and Jim Locke in their final season. Many outstanding underclassmen will help to bolster next year's team, after having game experience with a first-place club.

Second Row: Gladius, Browne, Fitzgerald, Newton, Smith, Ladley, Piombo, Giachino, Beale, Antonini. Third Row: Matulich, Cuney, Arroyo, Parker, Springer, Wise, Renfro, McKaig, Davini, Fowler, Pinn, Abboti.

Leading Lightweights

C's runners, Jim Giadius and Herb Matroni, excelled in the 75- and 150-yard dashes.

Class B hurdlers, Bill Ladley, Rich Dills and Bill Fitzgerald led the B's to their highest finish in years.

At right, two of the Peninsula League's outstanding middle distance lightweight runners were Dave McCann and Roy Mattson.

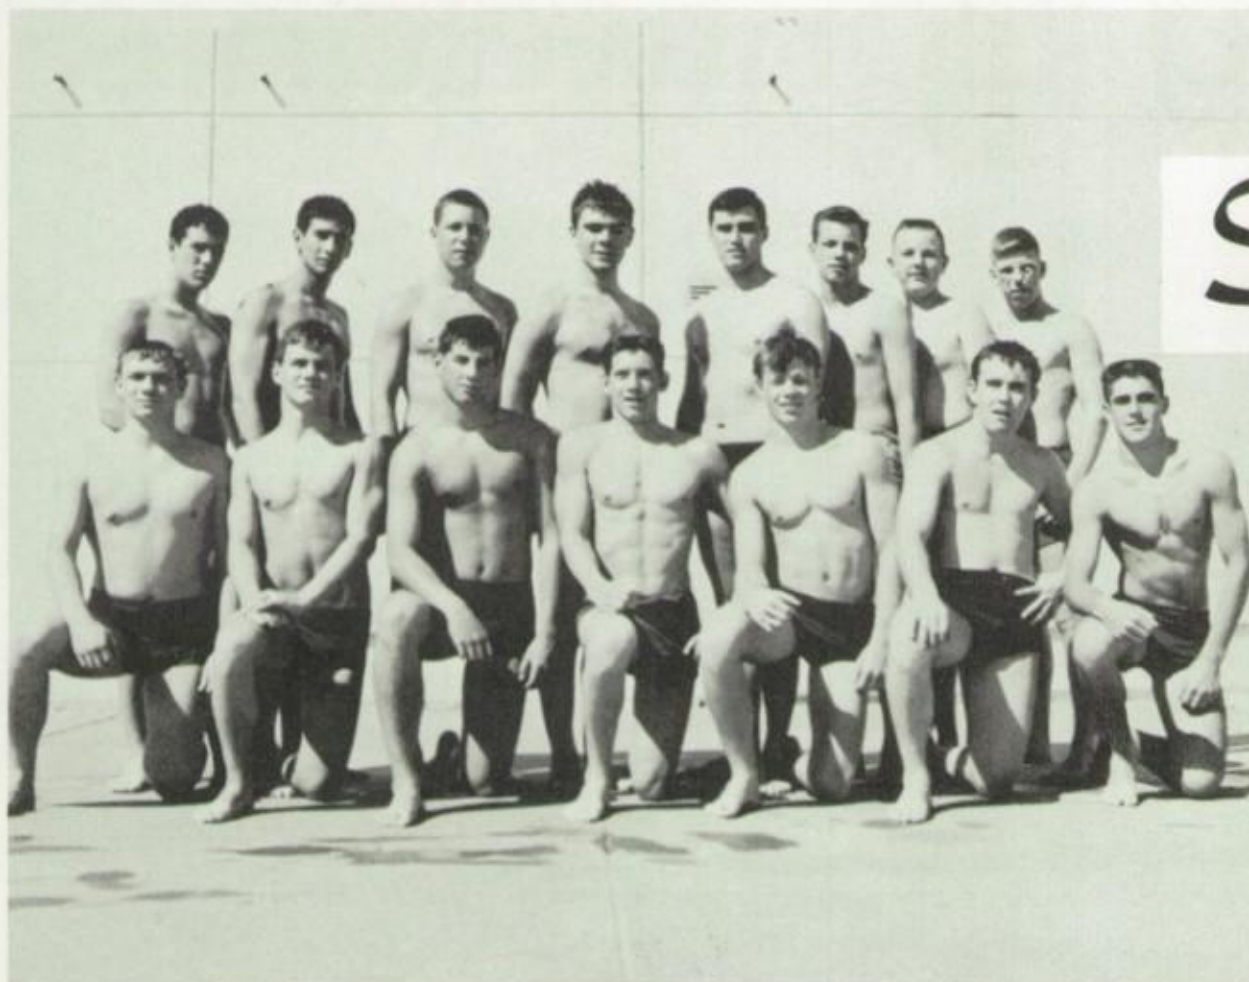

C's sprint stars, Ron Bals and Steve Ozard, paced the team in the 150, 330, and 660.

C's hurdlers, at right, are Bob Dills and Ed Young.

Varsity Swimmers

Led by Coach John DeFelice, this year's varsity swimmers, with a five won and three lost league total and an eight won and four lost season total, won fourth place. The Capuchino Varsity, sparked by Larry Muzio, Larry Del Carlo, Tom Strauss and diver Dave Barry, took 636 points over their opponents' 430.

The staff would like to say thanks to Coach John DeFelice for the fine work he has done in his four years of coaching. While coaching the varsity team, he has achieved a very commendable won-lost record of 30 and 16.

Dave Barry, outstanding Varsity diver, shows his form off the high board. Dave was first in the P.L. finals in 1961, but came in fourth this year to complete a fine season.

Coach John DeFelice checks over the time of fine B swimmer Bob Macartney. Coach DeFelice has shown great spirit and drive which is so essential in the forming of any team. We would like to extend best wishes to Mr. DeFelice and hope that he will have more successful coaching and teaching years at Crestmoor High.

Larry Muzio and Don Wagner give Gary Lundberg some encouragement. Making up part of the relay team which proved successful, these boys were instrumental in the team's winning time after time.

B's-C's

The B's and C's, also under the leadership of John DeFelice, completed a fine season in which the B's took a third place in P.L. competition, while the C's took a fifth.

The B's won five and lost three, while the C's evened up at four and four. The team members who showed much strength in competition were Bob Macartney, Pete Pontacq, Dick Dickhoff and Phil Kearns.

At the sound of the gun, Larry DelCarlo, Bob Macartney, Dave Leone and John Hetzner get off to a racing start.

This year's outstanding swimming award went to Senior Ed Weiss, being congratulated by Mr. DeFelice, for his spirit, willingness, and all-around drive which make a success out of a swimmer.

Tennis

This year marked an unusual event in the history of the Capuchino tennis squad. Coach Ernie Schnurpfeil's netters stroked their way to a tie for the championship with Burlingame, losing but one match—to Burlingame. This was the first championship for Capuchino in this sport.

In his first year of coaching, Coach Schnurpfeil led his squad to the top. He organized some of the team to enter in a novice tournament at San Leandro, in which most of the team members could participate, to gain experience.

In the P.L. Finals, Dan Shinn and Mike Schneider finished second in the doubles division. Gene Phillips became sick and could not display his usual performance, losing to San Mateo's Westy Hoffman in singles. Climaxing the end of the season, the team dumped Coach Schnurpfeil into the pool, celebrating the team's victory.

Golfers

Coach Robert Wasson exhibits one of his putting specialties that keep his score at a minimum—when no one is looking, of course.

Talented junior Rich James rated as first man this year. Rich is shown sinking a 20-foot putt for a birdie three on this hole.

Straight down the fairway goes Mike Ramsey's drive. Shooting as second man this year, Mike has been on the golf team all four of his high school years.

Tim Ramsey uses an iron to be on the green in two in this picture. Tim, a senior, played his last year as a strong third man behind his twin Mike.

Blasting out of a sand trap is junior Bill Hill. Cap promises to have a strong team next year with Bill and Rich James returning. Bill improved with every match this year and will come on strong next year.

John Rice and Ken Artru shared fifth man duties this year. A senior, John squares off for a long drive. Ken chips one to the green. Ken also returns next year.

Greg Chagaris, Ron Miller, and Bobby Coleman round out the rest of the team. This year's team finished with a seven win-seven loss record, near the middle of the league standings.

Gymnastics

This year's gymnastics team placed in the second division of the Peninsula League. The team gave their first exhibition of talent at halftime of a basketball game between Capuchino and Hillsdale, along with some Hillsdale gymnasts, at the Capuchino gym. Due to lack of gymnastic experience, the team could place only one member in the finals of the Northern California Meet, that member being Captain Tom Fester. Coach Art Aldritt developed some fine potential and with the whole team returning next year, the Cap gymnasts should greatly improve in next year's standings.

Managers

The managers put forth a great deal of work each year and some do as much as the team members themselves. There are records that must be kept, equipment to be issued, charts to be done, and spirit to be kept up. All of these are duties of the managers. A good manager greatly aids a squad.

Rotary Award Winners

Every year in each sport, an outstanding senior participant is chosen for his leadership on and off of the playing field, his representation of the team and school, and his sportsmanship and conduct in athletic competition. The members of the whole team write down their choices for the Rotary Club Award Winner. The major sports in which the award is given are football, basketball, and track. The year's winners are pictured below.

JIM LOCKE was the first Cap athlete ever to receive Rotary recognition in two sports. He received the Football and Baseball Awards.

FRANK DEKKER received his Rotary Award in Basketball.

The Rotary Award for Track went this year to weight man WALT WENGER.

Seated in an outdoor cafe are two of Cap's familiar couples: Sherie Redding, Bart Priolo, Jerry Holthaus, and Betsy Ross.

After weeks of excitement and anticipation of the Prom, prospects were dampened when April showers appeared the day before. Committee heads, Bill Hill and Maria Herrero, tried to make the most of the situation as they led their committee in decorating the cafeteria. Between showers, the boys transported 200 trees, and the girls combed the neighborhoods for roses. While every one helped to twist the hundred rolls of crepe paper and paint the gazebo, Cathy Cozzolino and her crew worked steadily to finish the murals on time. In spite of all doubts and unforeseen happenings, the sun came out and "Parisia" went off as scheduled. All too soon the Cinderella magic of the evening drew to a close, as the short-lived corsages and rented dinner jackets became mere memories to the Class of '63.

The camera falls on Bob Nessi, Charlene Winter, Mike Lingsch and Dianne Saari as they dance to the music of Sal Carson and his band.

Soft music, dim lights—Bob Mandley, Dennis McCoy and their dates are seen relaxing 'neath Paris skies.

Intermission brought surprises—Junior Class President Ken Smith presented adviser, Mrs. Daiker, with a large bouquet of red roses, a token of the class's appreciation for all the work she did to help make "Parisia" such a memorable night.

Donna Asplund and her steady, Bill Petri, are seen as their evening in Paris draws to a close.

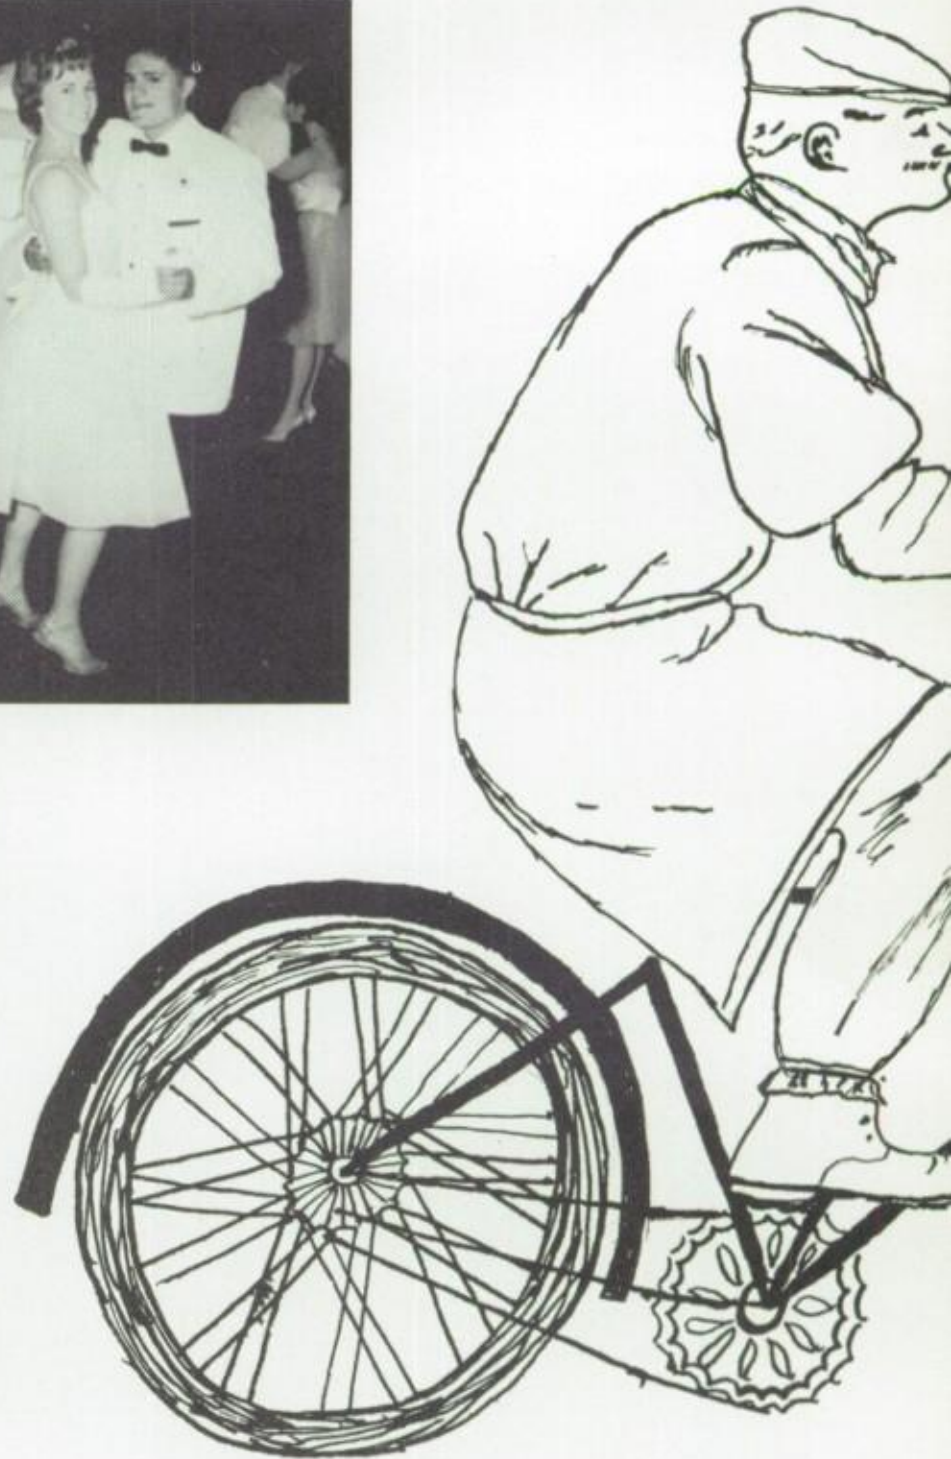

Sandy Bost and Ruben Garza were among the couples dancing to the dreamy tune of "Moon River."

"Visas and passports" were checked at the door by Miss Mace before these happy couples could travel the streets of "Parisia."

Entering the enchanted world of "Parisia" are Jim Brose, Phyllis Sposito, Tim Bohnert and Bonnie Feeny. Greeting the couples are class sponsors Mr. Scott, Mr. Ton, Mrs. Daiker, Mr. Luder, and Miss Mace.

"Brigadoon"

The musical Brigadoon by Lerner and Lowe appeared on the Capuchino stage the evenings of May 25, 26, and June 1, and 2. The fanciful Brigadoon, certainly the most lavish Cap production, was easily the most successful. Performing before a full house on each evening, colorful Brigadoon was hailed as one of the most memorable Capuchino productions. Also featured in the musical were many lively Scottish dances, including a sword dance (at left). Adding a bit of atmosphere were four bagpipers and five drummers from the Scout troop of San Bruno, all dressed in kilts of red plaid. On the final evening of Brigadoon the cast, crew, orchestra, and directors received a standing ovation as a fitting closing.

Newly wedded Jean and Charlie receive three cheers from the townspeople of Brigadoon.

Mr. Lundie is telling the secret of Brigadoon to Jeff, Fiona, and Tommie before the wedding is to take place.

Fine Arts Awards

Mr. Kenneth Ton is shown congratulating Anne Todd, who won in the category of "Most Promising Choir Member."

Providing the music for the evening was Mr. Otto Mielenz.

Mr. Frank Valentine helped in the selection of outstanding art students.

Mr. Stanley Grosse also helped in the selection of art winners.

At left is pictured Linda Bledsoe, "Best Actress"; Jack Corky was chosen "Best Actor." Best play of the year was "Hasty Heart"; "Best Supporting Actor" award went to Bob Holdsworth who also received an award for "the most achievement in a musical."

Top winner, Joyce Thomas, received "Most Outstanding in Music Department," "Best Supporting Actress," and "Best Performance in a Musical" awards. Ericka Schreiner received "Most Outstanding Choir Member," and "Most Inspirational." Gordon DeVol was chosen as "Most Promising Choir Member."

Anne Todd, at right, receives "Most Promising Choir Member." "Most Promising Newcomers" were Vicki Bolts and Jim Price. Bolts and Jim Price. In the field of Technical Drama, Toni Barnes and Carol Everhart received "Most Outstanding" and "Most Promising" went to Greg Taylor. The Service award went to Don Clark.

Will Hastie, at right, received "Most Outstanding Art Student"; Sandy Feininger received "Outstanding Art Student," and Tom Macris was chosen "Most Promising."

Awards Assembly

Joyce Thomas and Ken Paige were chosen as the Millbrae Optimists' "Graduates of the Year." Joyce has been in such activities as student government, choir and C.S.F., while Ken also in C.S.F. was this year's exchange student and also took active part in many school activities.

Ralph Baxter, above has won many speech awards, such as first place in a district contest covering South San Francisco to Palo Alto, and fourth place in the California, Utah, and Nevada Optimist Club Oratory contest.

At right, Rich Kaylor brought many honors to Capuchino when he was chosen as a page for the House in Washington, D.C. He was also accepted by a great number of colleges including West Point, Annapolis, Princeton, Cornell, Yale, and Northwestern.

Below: Tom Callin was chosen for the International Christian Youth Exchange Student. He will be an Exchange student in Switzerland for a full year.

Donna Olinger received honors for herself and Capuchino when she won Second Place for her College Bowl Essay on, "Why I Want To Go To College."

Left: Sarah Jenkins, winner of numerous awards, such as: Bank of America Science Award, Lifetime Member C.S.F., Bausch and Lomb Award, Social Science Award, Science Award, Eitel-McCullough Scholarship, and Saving and Loan Association Outstanding Graduate.

Below: Moonyeen Webb Speech Award Winner

Bill Hill and Maria Herrero were chosen to represent our school at Girls and Boys State this summer. These are models of state government where the students learn how the government is run.

Chosen by the C.G.A. as the outstanding senior girls are, left to right: Sarah Jenkins, most dependable; Karen Sarmiento, outstanding leader; Peggy Rhoads, most hospitable; Joyce Thomas, most talented; Connie Knight, most feminine; Shirley Castellino, most congenial; Donna Olinger, Ideal Girl; Claire Arnsbarger, most promising freshman girl; and Joan Kann, most gracious.

Final payments of $3.00 were taken in room 314 three weeks prior to distribution.

Editor Josie Gonzalez proudly displays "top secret" Cap '62 to the Student Body during the noon hour.

On the evening of June 8, yearbooks were distributed at a sock hop held in the boys' gym. (pictures of sock hop shown at right and below) Books were passed out in fifteen minutes and soon everyone was signing yearbooks.

At left, Editor Josie Gonzalez presents a yearbook to Paul Baldwin, who was away when the dedication was revealed.

The Roy McKinney Combo, "Starliners," performed in the Senior Court during the last week of school. Mario Torres also entertained the crowd with his "What'd I say."

Above, some of the senior crowd is shown who were delighted to have entertainment such as the "Starliners." In the background are some of the Capites listening in room 201.

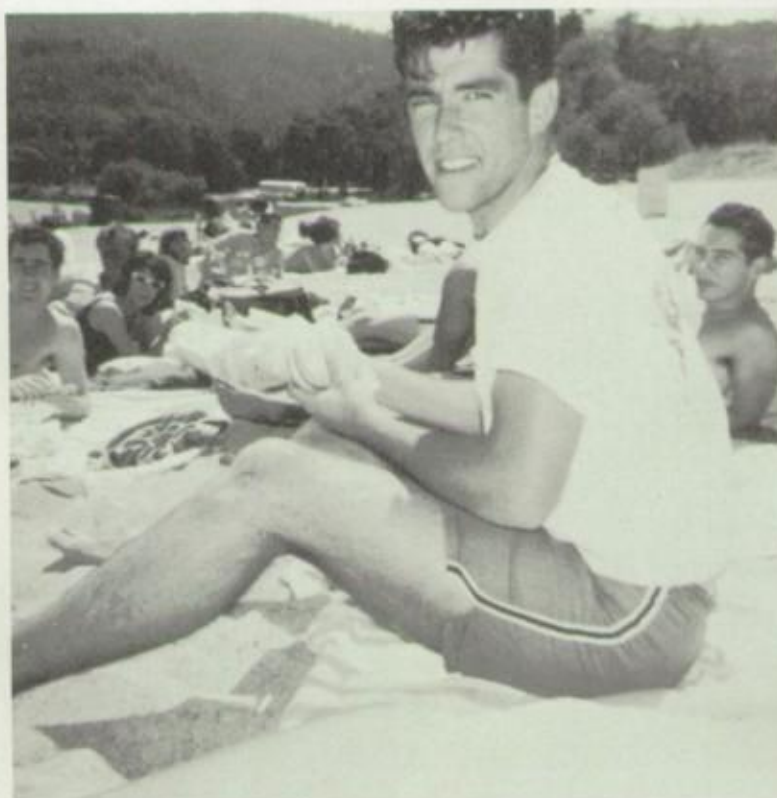

Pictured at left are some of the notorious senior men who seem to be very anxious for graduation. Finals were finally over and everyone could relax and enjoy moments such as this one.

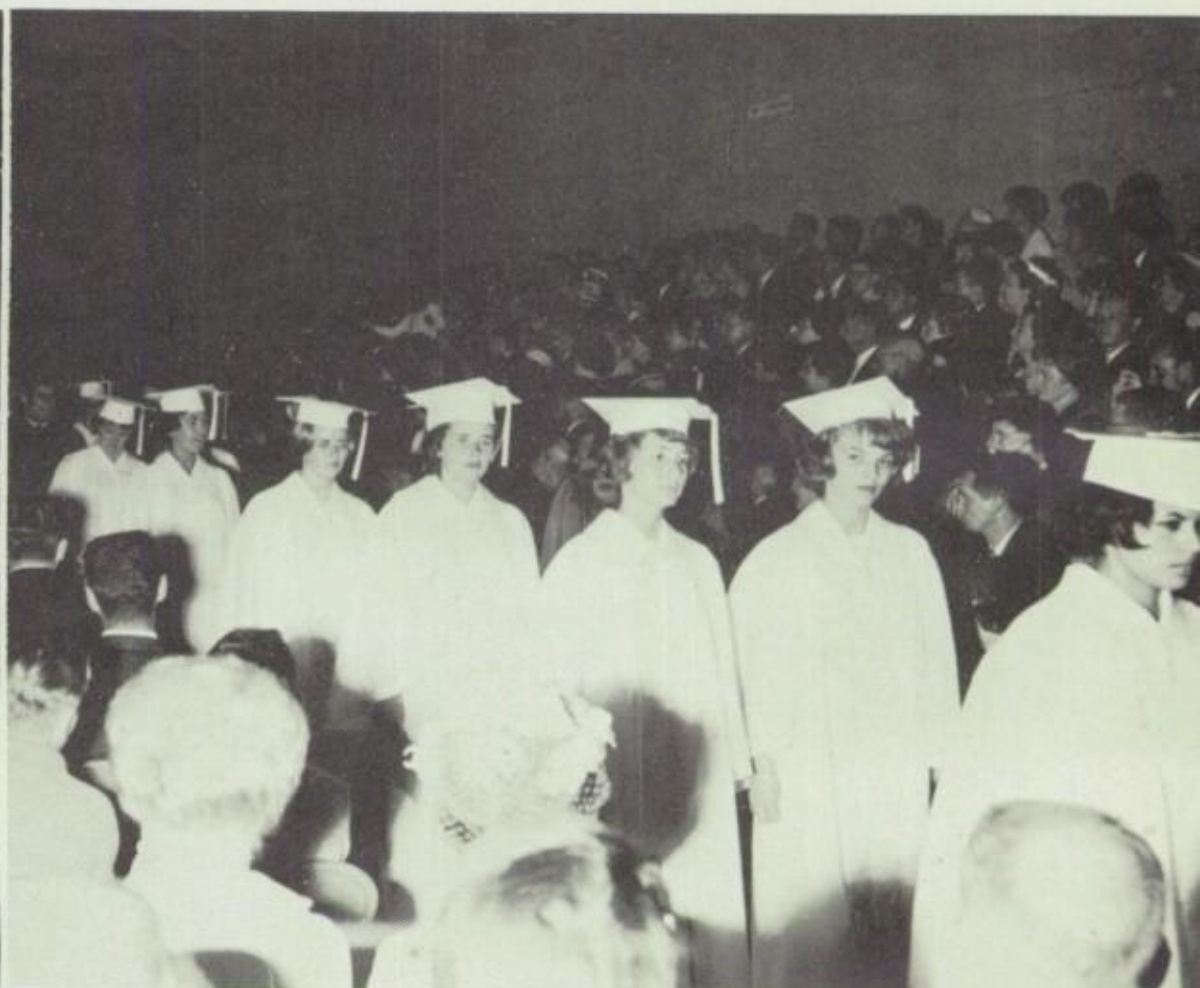

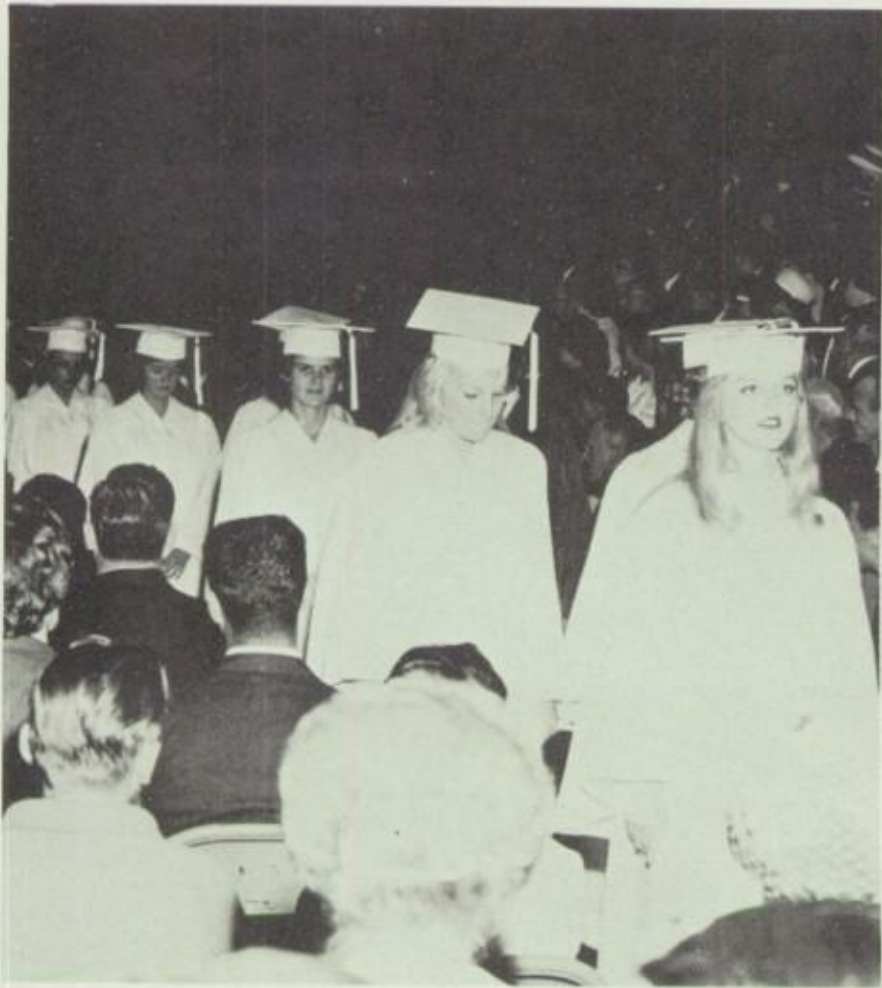

Senior Cut Day

The day that all seniors wait for, Senior Cut Day, was truly a successful one in spite of the adverse weather. The mighty Seniors were shown a movie, "The Mouse That Roared," in the auditorium. At twelve the seniors were free to go wherever they wished. Among places visited, were Russian River, Searsville, Marin Town and Country, and Santa Cruz.

The Class of 1962

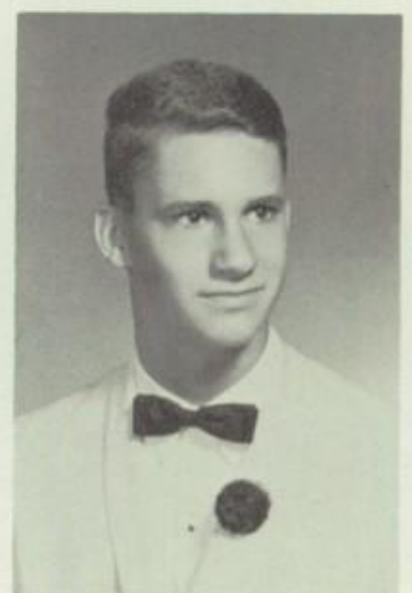

Commencement

Happiness mingled with tears prevailed at the Ninth Annual Commencement held in the Boys' Gym at 7:30 on June 14, 1962. Twelve years of schooling were climaxed as Thursday evening hailed an important and decisive step in the lives of some 355 seniors. For some, the end of education was at hand and for others another beginning was to come. Graduation speakers and their topics typified the feelings of the Class of '62. Speakers were: Ken Paige, "The Criteria of Knowledge;" Jordan Neri, "The Paths of Decision"; and Bob Rothstein, "The Limitations of the Future." Class president, Chris Johansen presented Mr. Claudon with a new school flag as class gift.

Grad Night

"Till We Meet Again," Grad Night '62 was held at the Villa Hotel following the commencement exercises at Cap. Buffet style dinner was served from 10.30 til 12.00. At left, some ex-Seniors are shown enjoying dinner.

At right, the Seniors start off the evening with some slow music in the Pacific Room of the Villa Hotel. Howard Fredrick and his orchestra provided the soft, slow music for the evening.

Above, the tempo of the music picks up as the "Franc-tics" took over and all graduates twist. At right, some of the graduates relax in the coke bar.

At right, is shown the room where Bingo games were played. The merchants of San Bruno gave many valuable prizes which made the games worth while.

Above and at right are shown the "Cables" who came on at 3:30 A.M. As the headline attraction of the Grad Night, they were enjoyed by everyone.

The first entertainer of the evening was Jay Payton who told jokes, sang and did some fancy tap dancing. All agreed that he was very good.

Shown at right are the graduates indulging in some twisting. Grad Night ended at 4:30 and a Continental breakfast was served in the dining room.
